Dr. Green of Westchester has shown me a price list of yours of Fractional currency and U. S. States. Will you kindly send me a copy of same. If for any reason it is now obsolete as to prices &c. I should like to have it just the same, as I want to use it for reference.

I am especially interested in $1.00 - $2.00 & $5.00 U. S. States. What have you in this line to offer?

Yours truly

Gentlemen

Your favor of Oct. 5th at hand. I will keep the $5.00 bank note sent. Also the $2.00 note Series 1875 Allison & Wyman and enclose check for $4.00. I return herewith the balance. I would like one or two of them, but isn't the price a little high for notes which were so long in use? I would like the $1.00 Allison & Gilfillan but you ask $2.50 for, while in your price list of Fractional Currency you offer it for double face. Will you kindly send me one of your price lists. I am now using a borrowed one. There is a $2.00 note which I have a faint recollection of seeing. It has a two upon it something like this [2]. Of what issue is it and have you one and at what price?

Gentlemen.

Enclosed find check for 2.00 in payment of Spgfd note. The price is a little high, but I am glad to get this note as Springfield is my birthplace and I know the bank from which it came.

Advise me if anything more turns up. I want particularly 5.00 & 10.00 1861 issue, the latter made payable in Phila., and both with pen and ink signatures.

Yours truly

Gentlemen.

Your favor of the 7th at hand and noted.

In regard to the old $10.00 note, I am sorry you cannot give me any more information about it. As for myself, I do not care, after what you have told me, to risk sending it to the government at Washington, to find out its exact status, even though it proved to be worth a large premium over its face, because if it never came back, even though I received its full value, I should feel very sorry.

Therefore, I have decided to return same to you herewith, and to enclose check for $15.10 for the other three notes retained (face value $8.00) If this is not satisfactory let me know and I will return them to you. As I wrote you these notes are duplicates. I have three of the $5.00 1861 notes with pen and ink signatures. In fact all notes of that date were signed in that way. A corps of men were retained for signing notes, and the signatures on my notes are all different. It is on that account that I can use the one you send.

The note I return (10^{00} - 1875) has been placed between two pieces of celluloid for the better preservation and handling of it. You can easily take it off if you do not care to keep it that way. When I encased the note I felt sure that I should at least, keep that one for my collection.

I return also the 2^{00} 1869 note as I have two or more specimens of it. I want this note on all white paper.

Yours truly
George W. Blake

Gentlemen.

Your favor of the 12th at hand, returning my check for $15.00. I trust I have not offended you in supposing you would be willing to accept the above amount for the three notes. I thought I was making a liberal offer. I assumed the $10.00 1875 note was worth at least face, in fact I was offered $10.00 for it while it was in my possession but I dismissed the offer thinking it was worth much more. I have concluded now that I do not want it, as it would be out of harmony with the rest of my collection, so I think I will confine myself to banknotes issued since 1860.

If I could dispose of the $10.00 note to the party mentioned, I would be glad to take the lot at your price. I think however if I should go to him and offer it, he would decide he didn't want it. I may be able some time to bring the subject up in a casual manner, and if he renews the offer I will let you hear from me. As I do not feel that I can afford to pay you $20.00 for the 3 notes, I am obliged to return them to you herewith.

If you conclude to let me have the $1.00 & 2.00 notes, I am willing to pay you two and one half times face for them, or $7.50 - but no more. This, I assume you, is a high price. I bought recently from a numismatic dealer a couple of 1.00 notes on a New England bank at $1.25 each. These notes were ~~about~~ almost as fine in appearance as yours. The low numbers you mention, do not interest me, but the crisp condition does. The end numbers you will find are not very low -

Yours truly
George H. Blake

Gentlemen.

Your favors came duly to hand. I send herewith check for the Gold Nate. I do not need the same, as I bought both $5.00 & 10.00 Gold Note since I saw you. As I failed to notify you to this effect I have kept the one sent. In regard to Fractional currency, since I was in Phila. I picked up a little lot at a very low price, and of the straight varieties there are not many I need. I may give you a show at my wants when the weather gets cooler.
